Their only possessions are 3 knapsacks which they sleep on and 4 benches. They have a kitchen, no bathroom and no bedrooms. Their home is basically four posts tied together and draped with plastic sheeting. They do have 1 big "patio" outside. They have no electricity or plumbing. The water has to be carried in from a stream or river and they light their one-room house with candles because they cannot even afford to buy a kerosene lantern. The mother cooks outside on an adobe stove that is fueled with sticks gathered by the kids. They have a make-shift outhouse as well that is made from branches and plastic sheets. Of course the floor of the house is dirt so when it rains, since the "roof" cannot withstand the weight, it pours into their house and turns the floor to mud. At those times they have to sleep sitting up on the benches. At night they warm themselves by lighting a fire on the dirt floor.
