Their house has a living room and kitchen but no bedrooms or bathroom. For furniture, they have only 6 chairs. They have no beds so she sleeps with her grandmother on the dirt floor. They also do not have electricity or running water. The grandmother cooks on an adobe stove that is outside the house. They bring water in buckets from the nearby river. They use candles to light their house at night. When the cold weather comes they light a fire on the dirt floor to stay warm but that fills the house with smoke so they have to open the door. When it rains, water leaks inform the tin roof. Their bathroom is outside.
