Ruth is an Aids orphan, her father first died of Aids in 1998, and then her mother in just a few months also died of Aids, leaving behind 5 children. Their uncle, (Father's brother) being a Christian man and a pastor of Soy Bible Baptist Church took the children into his home, where they have lived ever since the death of their parents.

Pastor Thomas Ambani and his wife Margaret already had 8 children of their own. Which now brings the total to 13 children to care for. Because he is a small scale farmer he works very hard to feed his family and send the children to school. His biggest problem is getting enough money to send them to school so they can be properly educated.

The children live with the Ambani family and are very active in church and have good parental leadership. Their biggest need is help in going to school since the burden of educating 13 children is very heavy for Pastor Ambani.

Summary:

If you would like to give us any information other than what was asked, please do so here.

Their parents died of Aids in 1998 and the children are very bright and do well in school but it is so very difficult for pastor to educate so many. He really tries but just keeping them dressed and living them a place to live is hard for him and takes all the funds he makes. His desire is to see them turn into good Christians adults that will be of help to others who have lost there parents to Aids as well. There are so many.
