Anushya's dad was drunkard and would waste all his earning in liquor as well on adultery and he would not bother to take care of her and her mom, whom he would always abuse and forced her to take up menial jobs so as to provide him with extra money for his indulgence.

Her mother inspite of her health problems took up work as a maid where she labored for 13 hrs every day for less than a $. At times she and her daughter were forced to go to bed empty stomach. Anushya was forced to do baby sitting for a neighbor's family through which she was provided one meal a day and in the evenings on most occasion's , her dad would come home fully drunk and would beat her mom if she refused to hand him her wages and if she did , it means Anushya had to go to bed starving.

This means the next day she had to go baby sitting and had to wait till lunch, when her employers serve her, which is the only meal she enjoys for the day. One evening when her mother was returning home from her work, noticed our feeding center and pleaded us to provide her and her daughter protection from her husband's abuse.

We allowed her into our church, where she and her daughters have been regular to church service , her mom got saved and began to pray for her husband and gradually he became sober minded and began to love his wife and his daughter Anushya, but this was short lived. By the grace of God , her mom was pregnant and conceived female child, which was not a good news to Anushya's dad, who upon hearing the news that his wife conceived another female child. Quietly walked out of the house in disgust and highly disappointed that his wife has not given birth to a son. Till now he has not come to take care of Anushya and her mom.
