Anand's dad left him and his mother abruptly and went with other women, the reality is that Anand's mom is a Temple prostitute and the man who was with her stayed till she gave birth to a son and went away never to return. This happened when Anand's mother could no longer attract devotees around the temple. She spend most of her time on the streets and brothel houses and was forced to return to her village when her mother who was also a temple prostitute was on the death bed. It so happened when she came she her mother for one last moment, found a pastor praying for her mom, until then she did not know the name of our Lord Jesus Christ ,other than her goddess Yellamma.

When she heard the pastor praying for her mom, she felt some strange emotions emerging out of her, that her mom who was so sick, no temple priest visited her, nor any temple leaders who persuaded my mom to become temple prostitute ever come to see her but a Christian pastor came, then she her eyes were opened, when the pastor shared the gospel with her, she felt like rejecting the gospel but somehow felt she has to believe. She did reluctantly then, but now she is a strong believer, she too like her mom got saved through the gospel. Now her mom died, but she continues to grow in the Lord, never ever thinking of going to the temple. Her only wish that TAL could assist her son.
