This child is born in a Islam family. She has a brother. Her father is a Plumber and earns Rs. 900/- per week. But doesn't take care of the family. He spends most of the money in drinking and not being supportive to the family and children. Because her father has been addicted to drinking, her mother finds very difficult to run the family. So she decided to go to job and takes care of the family with the less amount of salary she gets. Without the support of her father, mother takes the responsibility of the family. She has to pay the rent and the school fees and also has to manage all the things in the house. So she finds it very difficult. But manages to provide one-meal per day to the children.
