Ro Hlua is the older brother of Pek Hlua. His father is an alcohol addict and sickly and could not work. People let him watch something and gave him a little money and he uses it all for drinking. His mother is not complete in mental ability and so could not do any decent work. She would go around the village and people let her wash some clothing and give money.

Ro Hlua was put in an orphanage in that place but after it took his younger brother, Pek Hlua, to our home, his parents took him out of that orphanage (They wanted to take him out already before I met them, because Ro Hlua complained that he did not get enough food and that the principal of the orphanage abused the children) and gave him to me.
