Ruthal is the daughter of our Preacher Subash ID No.3707, who is overseer dozens of churches. He is a convert from Hinduism and gave his two daughters Christian names instead of Hindu names which would have fetched government welfare schemes in her schooling like free tuition and scholarship for his daughters. But he desperately wanted to identify himself and his family by Christian name and went to the extent of registering their names in government records under Christian names. Right now he is finding hard to educate his two daughters, why because he expected family property share but his parents refused to give him any share because he changed his religion. So he is praying and requesting TAL to assist his daughters to pursue their education.
